NCCA POLICY

Dues are $6.00 per year for adults and $4.00 per year for juniors under 18. Membership is open to all, but only NC residents can vote and hold office. Each member is entitled to play in NCCA-sponsored events and will receive "The Carolina Gambit," published six times a year. Games, articles, tournament reports, and other materials for "The Gambit" are welcome and necessary. All tournament reports and address corrections should be sent to the President and all other materials to the Editor.

FROM THE EYES OF A FISH

By Robert Singletary

Much has happened in the last three weeks which has made it necessary for me to put out a mini-issue before the upcoming North Carolina Championship.

The main reason is that I need to announce that most of the present NCCA officers will be stepping down at the business meeting. Vice-president Alan Lipkin, in his fifth term with the NCCA, will be moving shortly to eastern Tennessee while secretary-treasurer Patsy Spurrier, in her second term, is presently eight months pregnant and is undecided about seeking reelection.

So, where does that leave me--holding the bag as usual? No, not this time. As I will be graduating from UNC in either December or May and as there is an outside chance I may leave North Carolina to go to graduate school, I think it is in the NCCA's and my best interest not to run. Furthermore, I have been working two and three jobs at a time and been concentrating on school work, and so after five years of being yelled and screamed at I think it is somebody else's turn. Running for vice-president, though, is a very distinct possibility as I don't want to see all my work go down the drain. I do intend to stay active.

New elections will be held at the business meeting September 1 at 10:15, and if you are interested in running I would like to know so I can plan for a smooth transition. Also, if you would like to run absentee, I will need a notarized letter by August 25. There are many unique opportunities if you are interested. Remember, only current NCCA members can vote and hold office (you must also be a current NC resident).

There are also many other important considerations for the business meeting. The most important of these is that North Carolina now has two delegates and three voting members as opposed to one delegate and three voting members in 1982, and we need to decide how these should be distributed. I suggest that the president and vice-president be delegates while the secretary-treasurer and editor be voting members. So, what about the other voting member--there lies the question. There will also be other motions dealing with scholastic and postal chess, and I'm sure some people will have some constructive and destructive criticism of sorts. If you would like to make a motion, write Patsy immediately.

There are also two other reasons for the mini-issue. First, we have the LPO results, and second the championship has been moved five miles north to Raleigh as North Garner Junior High School has no air conditioning. The new site is Jaycee Center, 2401 Wade Ave., Raleigh. You can find a map elsewhere in this issue. I would appreciate it if you would spread the word for me.

One last thing . . . if you would like to hold the Invitational, please write or call me immediately. The September supplement will be used for that.

As usual, very best wishes.

323 ATTEND LPO

With $11,000 of prize money on the line, 323 players from 17 states and the District of Columbia flocked to Winston-Salem for the eleventh annual Lawrence Pfefferkorn Open. The tournament, superbly organized by NCCA vice-president Alan Lipkin, was the second largest chess event in North Carolina history.

In the 105-player open section, Dennis Gogel (2394) of New Albany, Indiana took top honors with a perfect 5-0 score to claim the $1,000 prize. Marcel Sisniega (2440 FIDE) of Cuernavaca Morelos, Mexico finished second with a 4.5-.5 score to win $500.

In the 137-player amateur section, five players scored 4.5-.5, splitting $1,700 among them. These players were Dean Hart of Charlotte, Eric Woro of Asheville, Walter Alexander of Lexington, Kentucky, Michael Wawrzyniak of Williamsville, New York, and Wayne Stuart of Chapel Hill.

In the 81-player novice section, Stevan Mixon of Asheville and Michael Rawls of Cherry Point tied for first with perfect 5-0 scores to split $500. James Ward of Newton took third with a 4.5-.5 score.

As usual, the tournament was superbly directed by national director and newest policy board member Harry Sabine of Crossville, Tennessee. Assisting Harry were John White and Kenny Keck of Crossville,

Robert Singletary of Raleigh, Jim Meyer of Bluefield, West Virginia, and David Myers of Philippi, West Virginia.

A complete prize list and crosstable follow.
